There isn't much of an evaluation I can make but I send this so you can, if it interests youm make your own. Now you know the kind of company I've kept! I would remind you that the Houston chronicles began with a broken leg or foot and that I know there is a very serious weakness in at least one leg, as she knows I know. Never a dull moment, anyway. Only wasted ones! HW 9/10/73
